Athlete Summary

Isabel (Izzy) is the complete package. She is smart, athletic and an all around incredible person. She has been awarded The Connecticut Council of Language Teachers Student Award, inducted into the National Junior Honor Society and received other scholastic awards. Izzy's favorite subjects are Biology and Math which will help her achieve one of her life's goals of attending medical school. Her focus and dedication carry over to the field and are quite visible. She has worked hard to attack from the left side of the plate, utilizing the winter to switch over to being a slap hitter. This skill will allow her to showcase her speed as well as increasing her offensive threat. Her speed and agility on defense make Izzy a nightmare for hitters. Izzy also loves volleyball and track and field. A fun fact is that she does not like ketchup.
